Dear Judge Koeltl,

I am J [REDACTED] M [REDACTED]. I [REDACTED] and I study at [REDACTED].

I believe that my dad Alex Mashinsky does not deserve a long sentence because he is a good man and has not done anything severe.

All the time when we go outside, he tells me to give some money to the homeless when we see them.

Him and I are also working on a book called Defying Gravity that will explain gravity.

Judge, I really think you should read this book.

For all this is why I think you should give him 6 months on either house arrest or probation. We need him.

I hope you take my words into consideration.

J [REDACTED] M.
